Getting a COVID-19 vaccine if you've had COVID-19

It's now recommended by the Ministry of Health that you wait 3 months after you test positive for COVID-19 before getting any COVID-19 vaccination. This recommendation is for all ages and applies to all COVID-19 vaccines available in New Zealand.

Waiting for 3 months after you test positive for COVID-19 can give you better protection and an increased immune response to the vaccine dose

However, we have been advised you are STILL ABLE TO GET YOUR FLU vaccination..

Free-form fruit galette

Crisp buttery pastry encasing a sweet fruit filling is a superb combination and you'll come back to this recipe time and again. The fact that there are no special tin requirements, as the pastry is simply folded over the filling, is less intimidating for pastry novices, too.

Ingredients

1 quantity sweet shortcrust pastry
 3 large (about 600g) golden delicious apples, peeled, cored and quartered, then thinly sliced lengthways
 45g (¼ cup, lightly packed) light brown sugar
 pinch of salt
 1 tbsp finely grated lemon zest
 1 tbsp lemon juice
 ¼ tsp mixed spice
 1 tbsp apricot jam, warmed
 125g (1 cup) frozen or fresh mixed berries
 1 egg, lightly whisked with 2 teaspoons water
 icing sugar, to dust

Method

1. Use a rolling pin to roll the pastry out between 2 sheets of non-stick baking paper to a 30cm round.
2. Put the apples, brown sugar, salt, zest, juice and mixed spice in a large bowl and toss to combine. Transfer the pastry to a large baking tray and peel off the top sheet of paper.
3. Arrange the apples in concentric circles over the pastry, starting at the outside and leaving a 4cm border. Brush the apples with the warmed jam, then scatter over the berries. Fold the pastry border up and over the filling, pleating it as necessary so it fits snugly. Brush the pastry generously with the egg wash. Refrigerate for 20 minutes or until the pastry is well chilled.
4. Preheat the oven to 190C. Bake the galette for 25 minutes. Reduce the temperature to 170C and bake for a further 20 to 25 minutes or until the pastry is golden and crisp and the apples are tender. Allow to cool slightly, then dust lightly with the icing sugar and serve warm.

vegetarian cheese and greens galette

This rustic tart has the perfect combo of crunchy pastry, silverbeet, zucchini and leeks, with just enough cheese to keep them coming back for more.

INGREDIENTS

2 tbsp olive oil

2 leeks, trimmed to white parts only
 2 zucchini, sliced
 300g silverbeet leaves, chopped
 1 tbsp Dijon mustard
 2 tbsp grated parmesan
 1 large egg
 1 tsp ground cumin
 2 tsp fennel seeds
 100g sharp vintage cheddar, diced

Pastry

200g plain flour, sifted
 125g butter, chilled and diced
 2 tbsp sour cream
 ½ tsp salt
 2-3 tbsp cold sparkling water

METHOD

In a food processor, pulse the flour, diced butter, sour cream and salt until it looks like coarse sand. Add cold water 1 tablespoon at a time, pulsing, until the dough comes together in a ball. Flatten into a round disc, wrap and chill for 30 minutes. Heat the olive oil in a large frypan and cook the leek and zucchini for 5 minutes until softened. Add the silverbeet, sea salt, pepper and a dash of water, and cook over low heat, covered, for 5 minutes, tossing occasionally until the leaves soften and wilt. Drain off any juices and set aside to cool. Heat the oven to 200C fan-forced (220C conventional). Place the pastry on a large sheet of floured baking paper and roll out to about 28cm wide. Brush with mustard and scatter with parmesan. Spoon the leek, zucchini and silverbeet filling onto the pastry, leaving a 4cm border around the edges, then crimp and fold the edges of the pastry towards the centre to form a rim. Beat the egg and cumin with a dash of water and use the mixture to brush the rim. Scatter with fennel seeds and sea salt. Pour the remaining egg over the vegetables, and scatter diced cheddar over the top. Use the baking paper to gently lift the galette onto a baking tray. Bake for 10 minutes then reduce to 170C fan-forced (190C conventional) for a further 20 minutes, or until nicely browned. Allow to cool for 10 minutes before slicing.

Big Brothers Big Sisters launch urgent appeal to raise 15k in 15 days for young people in North Canterbury

Inspirational speaker and much loved Canterbury local, Jake Bailey, is the face of an exciting new fundraising appeal from youth mentoring organisation, Big Brothers Big Sisters. Aiming to raise 15k in 15 days, Jake launched the appeal on the 1st April with a heart-warming video showcasing the impact a Mentor - or 'Big Brother' or 'Big Sister' - can have on a child's life.

"Having someone to rely on when things are difficult, someone to listen to you without judgement and someone you know chooses to spend time with you can make all the difference while growing up", said Jake. "Matching vulnerable children in our communities with a safe and trusted adult role model, the Big Brothers Big Sisters programme supports positive relationships that are critical to childhood development, helping young people build resilience, a trait so important in overcoming the challenges and obstacles that life throws at us."

No stranger to adversity, having been diagnosed with Stage 4 Burkitt's non-Hodgkin's lymphoma at age 18, Jake not only beat cancer but now works to support causes like Big Brothers Big Sisters, helping young people reach their full potential in life.

Relying entirely on community grants and donations to provide their quality mentor training, the charity has been hit hard by the ongoing pandemic. With both an increasing demand for a decreasing pool of community funds, and a number of the charity's fundraising events cancelled or indefinitely postponed, the small but passionate North Canterbury team - thanks to the support of The Funding Network NZ - are looking at new ways to raise the money needed to help North Canterbury's youth.

"Raising 15k in 15 days will be no mean feat for Big Brothers Big Sisters, but we have to try," said Programme Manager Ellie Le Gros. "For some of the children in our programme, the weekly interaction with their mentor may be the only time they spend outside their home or school. For those exposed to poverty or complex family issues, one hour with their mentor may be the only time they are afforded the undivided attention of an adult. You only need to give a little, to change a life."

Several local schools are joining in the online appeal and raising money through mufti days and a number of North Canterbury businesses are jumping on board as matchfunders.

Watch the heart-warming video featuring Jake Bailey here and donate to the appeal, click here.

Hanmer Springs Bowling Club update:

Tigerturf advised yesterday that we are now the next job on the list and they should be in Hanmer later in April.

We have had a great response to our appeal for further help with our project from new Turf Sponsors and also annual Fence Sign sponsors.

A decision has been made on the fence design and product.

This has been based on pricing, it is a very low maintenance option which has a proven record of lasting for many years.

We are going with Moduline Colorsteel and awaiting a site visit from their agent, Cantabuild before this is finalised.

With this option we will be relying on volunteers to help us build the fence - another new and interesting part of the project.

If anyone is able to assist with this part of the project please let us know. Email the Secretary:

janet.messervy.hanmer@gmail.com

We have the funds to complete the construction of the green backed up with the loan facility approved by the Hurunui District Council last year.

Additional needs:

We have tried to obtain funding for the fence, unfortunately we have exhausted all avenues regarding funding of our additional costs to bring the project to completion.

We may be eligible to apply for funding for any other extras for the project once the new all weather bowling green construction is completed.

On a more positive note, we are pleased to report that your support with our Mainland Community Grant Application and your voting has given us a $500 grant towards the purchase of a set of bowls for Junior Bowls.

An appeal to Amuri Irrigation Company for help with the purchasing of mats, jacks and junior bowls has resulted in a grant of $250 coming to the club towards Junior Bowls.
