apology

Sorry, to those of you who didn't get your email notification to tell you The Pinkie was available on the website last Monday. The email provider attached to our website decided that all the emails we sent out on Monday were spam, but neglected to tell us until Wednesday that all those emails had been bounced.

It seems we are faced with a never-ending struggle. The powers that be at Xtra mail seem to subscribe to the theory that (our) life was never meant to be easy. They are constantly making demands that we change our passwords - having done that, none of our other email programmes work as they are routed through Xtra.

If for some reason your email reminder does not arrive you can be assured that the new Pinkie will be live on the website every Monday morning and going to www.thepinkie.co.nz will provide the same results whether or not our email link gets through.
