COVID IN THE COMMUNITY UPDATE

Hanmer Springs Health Centre, Sunday 10th July 4PM

The number of newly reported COVID-19 positive cases in the community remains about the same as last week. We are expecting the cases to climb, especially with the school holidays and more visitors to our community.

Let's help protect the wellness of each other by:

- Booking our COVID-19 2nd Booster shots by calling 020 4091 0704, if eligible
- Getting up to date with our vaccinations for flu, and measles.
- Wearing a mask indoors whenever we are not at home
- Staying home if we are unwell and get tested for COVID-19
- Calling our reception team on 03 315 7503 if you have COVID-19 symptoms or just feeling unwell.

If you perform your own Rapid Antigen Test (RAT) for COVID-19, you should record your results, whether positive or negative, on the same day by:

 Going online and recording it at https://mycovidrecord.nz

OR

2. Calling 0800 222 478 and choose option 3

If you are living with a person who has tested positive for COVID-19 you also need to isolate and have a Rapid Antigen Test (RAT) for COVID-19 on days 3 and 7 of your isolation.

Take care,

ALERT!

BEWARE OF SCAMMERS

Police have advised of a number of telephone scams re computers in the Hurunui. Apparently a number of people (particularly around Amberley) have been caught out by these scammers to the tune of thousands of dollars. One of their ploys is to tell you there is something wrong with your computer and offer to fix it.

So, never, never give out a password or bank details or allow anyone to access your computer. If it sounds suspicious, hang up.

Braised Lamb with White Beans and Turnips

Braised chunks of lamb shoulder in wine, give the dish an edge with lemon zest and white turnips, and added buttery white beans, a classic partner for lamb. (If you like canned beans, rinse and drain them, and add in place of the cooked beans, with the turnips, during final simmering.)

INGREDIENTS

3/3 cup dried white cannellini, or use canned beans 450grams

2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil

1.5 kg lamb shoulder in 2-inch chunks, with bone

Salt and black pepper

6 medium white turnips (about 600 grams), peeled and quartered

1 cup (about 2) finely chopped leeks

6 large cloves garlic, sliced

Grated zest of 1 lemon

1 tablespoon fresh rosemary leaves, plus sprigs for garnish

1 ½ cups dry white wine

1 ½ cups veal or chicken stock (a bit more if reheating;

PREPARATION

Place beans in a bowl, cover with water to a depth of 2 inches and soak 8 hours or overnight. Easier still use canned beans.

Heat oil on medium-high in a 4-quart stovetop casserole or deep sauté pan. Season lamb with salt and pepper, add to pan and brown. Remove to a platter. Add turnips and brown lightly. Remove to a bowl. Reduce heat to low. Add leeks and garlic, and sauté until softened. Stir in lemon zest, rosemary and wine. Return lamb to pan, cover and simmer on low 1 hour.

While meat cooks, drain beans, place in a saucepan with 3 cups water, bring to a simmer, cover and cook 1 hour. Beans should be tender; if not, cook another 15 minutes.)or used canned

After 1 hour, lamb should also be tender. Remove it, leaving all liquid in the pot. Drain beans and add to the pot. Add turnips and 1.5 cups stock. Season with salt and pepper. Bring to a simmer. Tuck lamb back in, cover and cook on low 30 to 45 minutes, until all is very tender.

Transfer to a deep platter and serve, garnished with rosemary. Or set aside, reheat (you may need a little stock) and serve.

apology

Sorry, to those of you who didn't get your email notification to tell you The Pinkie was available on the website last Monday. The email provider attached to our website decided that all the emails we sent out on Monday were spam, but neglected to tell us until Wednesday that all those emails had been bounced. It seems we are faced with a never-ending struggle. The powers that be at Xtra mail seem to subscribe to the theory that (our) life was never meant to be easy. They are constantly making demands that we change our passwords - having done that, none of our other email programmes work as they are routed through Xtra.

If for some reason your email reminder does not arrive you can be assured that the new Pinkie will be live on the website every Monday morning and going to www.thepinkie.co.nz will provide the same results whether or not our email link gets through.

He was having his usual good time on Monday morning.

A PLEA FOR HANMER.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

CHRISTCHURCH, June 16.

Mr A. W. Rutherford, M.H.R., has addressed a long letter to Sir Joseph Ward on the subject of Hanmer Springs, requesting the Government to put a sum on the Estimates next session for the following purposes:-Water supply, drainage, electric light, improved train service, improved communication between Culverden and Hanmer, and a recreation ground. adds: "Vast sums have been spent by the Government in developing and making attractive the North Island thermal springs and their surroundings, but comparatively little has been expended at Hanmer. Hanmer is to the South Island what Rotorus is to the North Island; and I venture to ask you, therefore, to at least repair to some extent the neglect of the past."

1946

NO LICENSED HOTEL AT

HANMER

Sir,—Is there any reason why there is no licensed hotel in Hanmer Springs. The old hotel at Jollie's Pass was burnt down, but cannot a new licence be granted? This would also help the boarding situation. Hanmer will be one of the leading tourist resorts of the South Island and licensed premises should be available to entice visitors from all parts of the world.—Yours, etc.,

PROGRESS. Hanmer Springs, November 25, 1946.

COMMUNICATION WITH HANMER

The first communication with Hanmer has been secured by packing for twenty miles over the snow. The soldiers at the Queen Mary Hospital have been reduced to condensed milk, but it is understood there is still some tinned meat available. Transport officers are now at Culverden arranging to pack further supplies to Hanmer.

News is scant, but there is probably five feet of snow at Hanner. This will thaw but slowly.
