Cuban-style pulled-pork sandwiches

Ingredients

8 garlic cloves, peeled
 1½ tsp ground cumin
 1 tsp freshly ground black pepper
 2 tsp dried oregano
 1 tbsp fresh oregano, chopped
 juice of 2 oranges
 juice of 2 limes
 4 tbsp olive oil
 1.5kg boneless pork shoulder, skin off
 ½ bunch mint leaves, chopped, to serve
 6 bap rolls*, to serve
 white onion, thinly sliced, to serve

Method

1. For the marinade, crush the garlic with a pinch of salt using a mortar and pestle until it forms a smooth paste. Transfer to a small bowl along with the cumin, black pepper, oregano, orange and lime juices and olive oil and stir to combine. Reserve half to set aside in the fridge. 2. Place the pork in a tray and pour the remaining marinade over the pork. Sprinkle liberally with salt, cover and refrigerate overnight (or, at most, 24 hours). 3. The next day, heat your oven to 200C fan-forced (220C conventional). Place the pork inside an enamel-lined Dutch oven or a deep roasting dish and pour all the juices from the tray over it. Cover with a lid or, if using a roasting pan, place a sheet of baking paper over the pork and then wrap tightly with foil. Place into the oven and immediately reduce temperature to 120C fan-forced (140C conventional). Cook for 7-8 hours until the meat is tender and beginning to fall apart (this can be done overnight). 4. Next, uncover the meat and increase the temperature to 200C fan-forced (220C conventional), cooking for 30-45 minutes until the top starts to brown. Remove from the oven and rest for at least 20 minutes. Lift the meat out of the pot and place onto a chopping board and use two forks to shred it into large chunks. Pour all the dripping from the pot into a measuring cup and return the meat to the roasting dish. 5. Discard half of the fat, scooping it from the top of the cup. Mix the remaining dripping with the reserved fresh marinade and chopped mint. This is your sandwich dressing. 6. Slice open the soft rolls. Fill with a generous scoop of shredded pork, drizzle over the dressing and garnish with thin slices of white onion. Close the bun and serve.

Pork burger with smoky apple bbq sauce and kale slaw

Ingredients

500g pork mince
 1 tbsp coarsely chopped sage
 1 tbsp coarsely chopped parsley
 1/3 cup dried breadcrumbs
 1/4 cup finely grated parmesan
 1 egg
 1/3 cup toasted pecans, coarsely chopped
 1/2 cup store-bought apple sauce
 1 tbsp smoked paprika
 1/4 cup maple sauce
 1 tbsp Worcestershire sauce
 1 large beetroot, peeled
 2 cups trimmed kale leaves
 4 slices cheddar cheese (about 100g total)
 1 green apple, thinly sliced
 4 burger buns, toasted

Method

1. Mix together the mince, herbs, breadcrumbs, parmesan, egg and pecans. Divide the mince into four patties. Set aside.
2. Combine the apple sauce, paprika, maple syrup and Worcestershire in a small saucepan over medium heat. Cook for 1-3 minutes, until reduced and sticky. Set aside.
3. Using a spiraliser or peeler, shred the beetroot. Set aside.
4. Heat a large frying pan over medium-high heat. Cook the patties for 3-4 minutes each side or until cooked through.
5. Spread the sauce between buns. Top with kale, beetroot, cheddar, apple and patties. Sandwich and serve with extra sauce.

Letter to the editor

Kia ora,

On a recent holiday in Hanmer, I was surprised to see a one way traffic system implemented at the entrances to Brooke Dawson Reserve (Dog Stream Reserve). I am in favour of a one way flow of traffic entering and exiting the reserve but am bemused by the entry being a right hand turn at the end of Bath Street, rather than a left hand turn. The right hand turn 'Give Way' exit has also added further complexity to the flow of traffic. I am intrigued to have a professional explain the rationale for the new system. For a layman, such as myself, it seems more logical to turn left into Brooke Dawson Reserve at the end of Bath Street and then exit the reserve by turning left back on to Bath Street. I'm hoping that The Pinkie can get to the bottom of this! Nga mihi, Nathan Gargiulo (Nelson)

This was forwarded to the Hurunui District Council who responded

'It was simply done that way in an attempt to slow traffic down, particularly during high volumes. Anecdotaly we'd heard people were going left without slowing down from Bath Street, just seeing it as an extension of the road.'

Refuse and Recycling Hanmer Springs

Due to Labour Day, for one week only, refuse and recycling in Hanmer Springs will be collected one day later than normal on Tuesday 25th October.

Please remember the following:

- Only Hurunui Council bags will be collected. In Hanmer Springs these can be purchased from the library, Super Liquor, and the Service Station.
- Bags must be securely tied and at the kerbside by 8am as collection times may vary to normal; the crew will not return to collect bags that are placed out late.
- Refuse bags must not exceed 15kg.
- Bags split prior to the crew's arrival and non-official bags will not be collected.
- Bundles of cardboard will not be collected but can be recycled via the transfer station.

What is accepted via the recycling collections?

The following are accepted, providing they are clean, free from food waste and loose (papers should not be tied in bundles) in a Council recycling bag.

- Newspapers, magazines, office paper and telephone directories.
- Cardboard, greeting cards, junk mail, envelopes, and egg boxes.
- Food, drink, and pet food cans.
- Rigid plastic bottles and small containers, types 1, 2 and 5 only with lids removed.

What cannot be recycled?

Soft plastics (those that can be scrunched), plastics 3, 4, 6 and 7, tetra paks, polystyrene (including meat trays), plant pots, strapping, clothing and shoes, food stained paper or card, coffee cups, lids, foil trays and food are not recyclable.

If in doubt throw it out as contaminated recycling bags will be stickered and left.

Recycling glass bottles

In Hanmer Springs, household glass bottles are collected providing an official Council recycling box is used. Glass bottles must not be put in recycling bags but can be recycled via the transfer station.

Former Hurunui College student Juliet Cooper, (Dalzell) has written

Mr Whiskers a story from her childhood, about a swag-ger man who passed by their farm in the 1950's.

This story will appeal to a wide range of readers and bring back memories from the olden days.

Both Mike Howell, the illustrator and Juliet have had a wonderful journey bringing this story to life.

The book is launching at Hurunui College assembly on 21 st.

October @ 2 pm.

There will be books for sale at the Hurunui Market Day on the 30th. Oct. 11am - 2 pm.

Also available anytime at the Hurunui Hotel.

Or ordered from the Hurunui College Library.

Next Week and the Fete is Back

Friday the 28th of October

10am to 4pm

Queen Mary Grounds

The Street flags are up...that must mean the Hanmer Springs Fete is almost here! This year we have 200 stallholders coming from all over New Zealand. After so much positive feedback, we are excited to be keeping the larger site that we trialled in 2021 which showcases even more of the beautiful grounds. We feel very privileged to host this event in a site that holds such a special place in the heart of so many Hanmer locals. This will be the day to get your Christmas shopping done with so many incredible Artisan producers bringing their amazing range of products to the Hanmer Springs Fete. We are so fortunate to be hosting a lot of local small businesses so be sure to come along and say hello. The sunshine is booked and we can't wait to see you on Fete day!

North Course

The North Course will see wineries, cafes and restaurants in North Canterbury all create an exclusive dish using local ingredients. The dish will be available at the eateries during the event for the full month of October and visitors will be invited to taste and rate the dishes they try (similar to Wellington On a Plate). This event is the region making a comeback and will be a great demonstration of what's on offer!

Hanmer Springs is represented by The Powerhouse Cafe. With restrictions easing, a team of local businesses are working together to revive the region.

The North Course takes place across the whole month of October and will allow diners to immerse themselves in the flavours of the coolest little wine region.

Food and beverage lovers are invited to taste and rate dishes and drinks – created especially for the event. Created using local produce and served up by the region's community of wineries, restaurants, cafes and eateries, the North Course shines a light on the talent and passion at play in the region.

Mary from the Powerhouse is offering the dish pictured above:

Grilled Rib-eye of Middlehurst Grass-Fed Merino Lamb atop a crisp Socca (chickpea and rosemary pizza) with Roast Cauliflower and Shallots, Organic Hanmer green leaves, a Wild Rowanberry Saffron & Hanmer Gold Raw Honey Mostarda and Canterbury Hazelnut Butter.

She tells us the dish is proving very popular in the restaurant. Best get in and try it.

The Sculpture Walk.

The Sculpture Walk is fun and easy. It takes around 30 minutes less if you don't look at the sculptures. It takes around 25 to 20 minutes and it's only 2.15 Kms. It's super easy. I bet most people could do it. There are around 14 sculptures. There are two dogs, one sitting, one laying down, a tuatara, some fantails/piwakawaka, a honey badger, a platypus, the big friendly giant, some mushrooms, some squirrels, an eagle, some sewer rats and an orangutan. My top three are 1st the sitting dog 2nd the eagle 3rd the orangutan what about you? Come to look at the sculpture walk and you can see them all for yourself and you tell me your favorite.

Here Are Some Pictures Of The Sculpture Walk.

Thank You This Was Written By Jamie Cannell.

The Cherry Blossom Tree

There was a girl with not many friends, who loved to wander without a care. She was wandering around the forest listening to the birds and looking at the trees when she ran her hand across the bushes and leaves while looking for fantails. She ran into a cherry blossom tree. She fell in love with the pastel pink blossom and the fresh green grass below. There, where fantails all through the tree. The girl ran home and grabbed a fold up chair and her favourite books and ran to set it up. She went there every day after school and loved sitting in the shady beautiful place reading her stories. In the autumn the blossoms fell off the tree and made a pink carpet. When winter came, the leaves were brown and orange on the ground. It became cold and frosty. She sighed and took her chair home so mould wouldn't grow on it. She walked back to her house and said she will be back again in spring. Ella

To be or not to be.

In my backyard, my family and I were digging when we found a small chest, with three words on it written in Latin (which I can read) saying, "Death To Caesar."

When I opened the chest, I saw several daggers, with dried up, dark red blood on them. Some of them were straight and sharp, while others were curved and tough.

When I touched one, I wondered what Julius Caesar would've felt when he was betrayed and stabbed all those times.

We sold the chest and its contents to a famous museum that paid us $150,000,000 for them!

Then I became famous! And I bought a pet lion! Having all that money became very boring, so I became an author and wrote a book.

A book that you just finished reading. Actually, it's too short to be a book. I'll keep writing anyway. Ahem!

Standing on a marble dias, I continue my speech in front of the Roman senate. They watch nervously. I think I see some of them are acting suspiciously, concealing items unknown behind their backs, I ignore it and get on with my speech about the future of our Empire. There are lands to conquer, outposts to build, roads and cities to be constructed across Europe. I'm coming to the finish when I feel a searing pain in my back. The senators start getting to their feet,, revealing their daggers. Soon I am coated in blood, Pain over my entire body from the knife wounds from head to toe. Within seconds I am dead, and the senators cast their knives into a chest. Later they secretly bury the chest of daggers in the garden of a house, thinking no-one would ever find it. Or so they thought.

Alfie Lester, Korimako.

Tree of Life

Many many years ago in ancient China it was a town nestled in the mountains. This town had lots of cherry blossom trees but in the middle of that town There was an enormous blossom tree. This tree was a magical tree. It filled the surrounding land with water animals and plants. This tree was the guardian of life. One day as the moon crept up into the sky and the sun went to sleep. Demons were freed by an evil youxia. The Demons rampaged along the land as they headed to this tree. When they reached the sanctuary they headed to the tree of life. The people awoke, everything was dead they were shocked. They gathered in the town Center. An old Warrior, named Conor stood out of the crowd and said I will find these demons and save this tree. When Conor mounted his horse he said goodbye to his family. He rode away, after many days and nights he saw a red Stampede. It was the Demons and the chase was on. Conor was catching up. He saw the leader. He knew he had to kill him to make the demons vanish and free the blossoms power. Conor pulled out his bow and hit the demon youxia in the leg then conor ran at the demon youxia with his sword and locked in combat conor saw a weakness and kicked him in the shin the demon screamed in pain and conor stabbed him in the heart killing him!!!!!! In the months following conor was the hero of this town and restored life and saved the blossom tree of life.

Hanmer Springs School

Tui Y1 class have been learning about koru. They have learnt it is a spiral shape based on the unfurling silver fern frond found in nature. The koru is a symbol in Māori art and carving where it symbolises new life, growth, strength and peace. They have learnt to draw koru and can recognise koru shapes in artwork. They each created a koru using clay and painted it, then glued it onto hessian and black paper to display it.

"I enjoyed making my koru using clay. It was fun rolling the clay into a long snake and then making the spiral shape" - Meila.

"I had fun making my koru shape using clay. My snake was long and thin and I rolled it around to make a spiral shape" - Harry.

"After my koru had dried I painted it green. It needed two layers of green paint. Then we stuck it onto hessian and black paper" - Isaac.

HANMER SPRINGS TRANSFER STATION
637 Hanmer Springs Road

SUMMER HOURS From September to 5 May

Tuesday - 1pm - 4pm
Wednesday - 1pm to 4pm
Friday - 10am to 1pm
Sunday - 10am to 2pm

Out of hours recycling facilities for paper, card, cans, plastics types 1, 2 & 5 only and glass bottles are provided; please ensure recycling is clean, loose and all lids are removed. Soft plastics (i.e. those you can scrunch in your hand) are not recyclable and must be placed in the refuse.

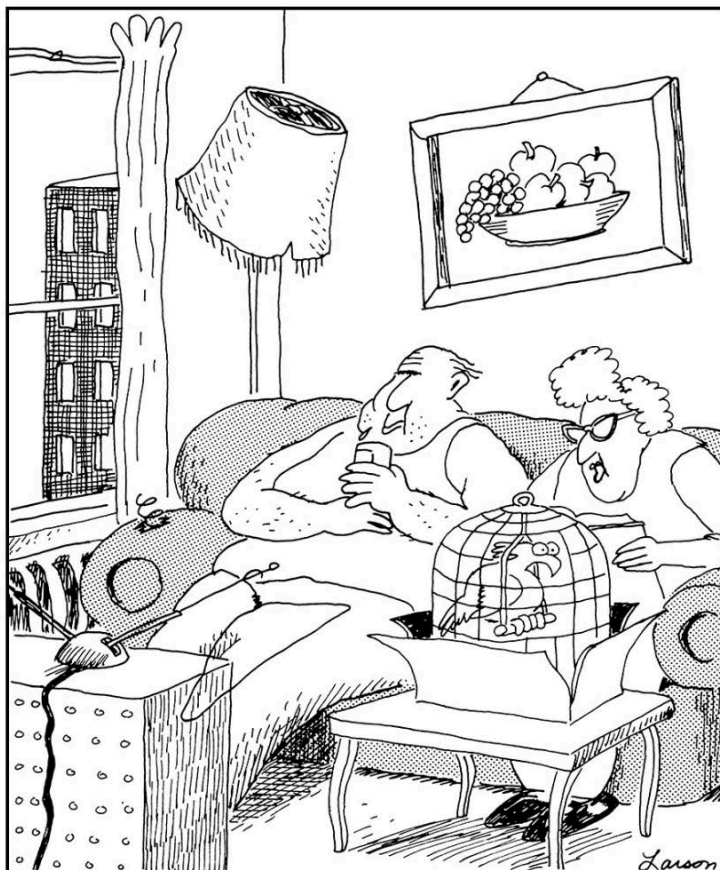

Kerbside refuse and recycling collection – Monday 8am

Only official refuse and recycling bags will be collected; these can be purchased from Hanmer Springs Service Station and the library.

Via the recycling bags clean paper, card, cans and plastics types 1, 2 & 5 only can be recycled.

If in doubt – place it in the refuse to save contaminating recycling.

Non complying bags and recycling bags containing glass and soft plastics will not be collected.
