HANMER SPRINGS FOODBANK

Did you know there is a "Foodbank" in Hanmer Springs that has funds available to help those that are struggling at the moment. This Foodbank money has been made available from generous donations by the Hanmer Springs community. A Four Square grocery voucher will be given to those eligible. If you, or you know someone that lives in the Hanmer Springs community that may be eligible please email:

hscommunitytrust@gmail.com

and we will send you an application form. All applicants will be held in strict confidence. Or, perhaps you may like to make a donation to help those less fortunate. A suggestion could be that you round up your next Hanmer Springs Four Square shop by making a monetary donation to the Foodbank account? Please ask the friendly checkout operator next time you are shopping.

gỏi cuốn, rice paper rolls, Vietnamese fresh spring rolls

Vietnamese-style spring rolls (also known as gỏi cuốn, rice paper rolls, salad rolls and summer rolls) are refreshing, light and the ideal vehicle for crunchy vegetables, fragrant herbs and simple proteins. Made by moistening, filling and rolling rice paper wrappers, that are quite adaptable. Switch out the prawns for tofu, chicken, pork, fish or mushrooms, and use any soft, thin, bite-sized vegetables, such as bean sprouts and avocado, but keep the herbs for their freshness. These fresh spring rolls are best eaten right away as a meal or cut in half for an appetiser. Serve with a creamy peanut sauce or spicy nước chấm for dipping.

INGREDIENTS

Salt

8 medium prawns (about 300 grams), peeled and deveined

150 grams thin rice vermicelli noodles

12 (20cm) rice paper wrappers

2 Lebanese or mini seedless cucumbers

12 butter or Lambs' tongue lettuce leaves

1 large carrot

1 ½ packed cups mixed fresh herb leaves, such as coriander, mint, Asian basil, shiso and/or dill

½ cup store-bought or homemade fried shallots (optional)

Nước chấm or peanut sauce, for serving

PREPARATION

- Step 1
Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil and make an ice bath by filling a large bowl with ice and cold water. When the water is boiling, turn off the heat, add the shrimp and cook until opaque throughout, about 1 minute. Use a slotted spoon to transfer the shrimp to the ice bath.
- Step 2
Add the noodles to the hot water and let sit, with the heat off, until tender, 10 to 20 minutes, depending on the brand. While the noodles are soaking, halve the cucumbers crosswise, quarter lengthwise, then thinly slice into thin matchsticks. Remove the ribs from the lettuce leaves. Using the large holes of a box grater, grate the carrot until you have ¾ cup.

Step 3

When the shrimp are cool enough to handle, pat dry; reserve the water bath. When the noodles are ready, drain and transfer them to the ice bath to cool. Place a shrimp on a cutting board on its side and press down with your non-dominant hand. Slice the shrimp in half lengthwise from head to tail and remove the black vein. Set aside and repeat with remaining shrimp.

- Step 4

When ready to assemble, drain and shake dry the noodles. Fill a large, deep dish or pie plate with a couple inches of warm water and gather all your ingredients at your work surface.

- Step 5

Working one at a time, submerge a rice paper wrapper in the warm water for 3 seconds; the wrapper will still be firm. Transfer to a work surface (avoid wood, which can dry out the wrapper). Pretend the wrapper is a clock face: fold the lettuce in half and place between 4 and 8 o'clock, leaving a 1-inch border on both sides. Top the lettuce with about 2 tablespoons of herbs, 1 tablespoon carrots, 4 pieces of cucumber, a pinch of fried shallots (if using) and about 3 tablespoons (1½ ounces) of noodles. Press the filling down to flatten. Grab the wrapper at 6 o'clock and pull it snugly over the filling. Roll tightly away from you once so the lettuce is facing up. As you roll, use your fingers to tuck the filling under the wrapper.

- Step 6

Fold in the short sides (3 and 9 o'clock) over the filling and press to seal (if this is proving difficult, you can leave one or both sides open). Place 3 slices of shrimp cut sides up on the wrapper between the fillings and top of the wrapper (12 o'clock). Continue rolling tightly until sealed. Transfer to a platter and repeat with the remaining wrappers, spacing the finished rolls apart so they don't touch. When your water is cool, replace it with more warm water as needed. Serve with peanut sauce and/or nước chấm for dipping.

Non-Stop Dance Party

The Lions Club, in conjunction with the Five Stags Bar and Restaurant are bringing a non-stop dance party on Saturday 24th February, the same weekend that the Motorfest is on in Hanmer.

It promises to be a great (maybe even nostalgic) night of 50s, 60s and 70s music from live bands.

Organiser Bryan Berryman told us the dancing will be complemented by great competitions like 'The Best Rock 'n'Roll Dancing couple'. There will also be quick-fire multiple raffles, an open bar and restaurant and lots more non-stop action.

It will start at 7 pm and go until late.

Sounds like the makings of a memorable night.

We will be giving you plenty of reminders but if you want to get in early and buy your tickets ($25 a head) you can call Bryan on 021 715180 or email rockabilly2022@gmail.com

This will also be a great opportunity to give the Lions Club a helping hand in return for all the great work that they have done and continue to do in our community.

MotorFest Promises Another Great Influx to Town

The annual MotorFest is back this year, bigger and better than ever. This is a great week for Hanmer Springs businesses as there is a huge influx of people who come to the event from throughout New Zealand. Many of them come with their families and make a week or more's holiday. A couple of years ago when there were attempts to stop the event being held at the Domain we sat down and worked out a rough figure for the amount of money spent in the town that week. A conservative figure was well and truly over the million buck mark.

Height Restrictions Removed

Hanmer Springs Thermal Pools & Spa is lifting all height restrictions on ALL of its slides – including the new Waiau Winder and Violet Vortex.

While the age and weight restrictions will remain in place, it means you no longer need to stand at the board to check if you're tall enough to hit the 1.2m line. A big change for them and a treat for shorter kids everywhere.

The Man From Nike

One evening recently The Pinkie received a desperate call from an American family. They had booked a house through one of the holiday home letting companies but could not raise anyone at the company. They had three young, tired children and Mum and Dad sounded quite desperate.

"If you don't know what to do, phone the local newspaper," the father said.

The Pinkie tried a few things for them, including going out and banging on doors. They had a confirmed booking but didn't know how to go about finding it.

The Pinkie was able to sort the problem and the family were soon installed in their holiday accommodation. John, the father rang to thank us and said if we ever had a problem in the United States he would sort it for us.

"Just Google me," he said.

This we did and found that he was Executive Vice President of Nike and the Director of all facets of their business that were related to Water.

Did they enjoy Hanmer?

They said, after a shaky start they loved the place and loved the pools and the kids want to come back next year.

HANMER SPRINGS LIONS CLUB

To all persons in the Hanmer Springs Community:

Whether you are a resident, a home owner, a ratepayer, a visitor, a registered Facebook follower, please read this important message from the Lions Club of Hanmer Springs.

Does Hanmer wish to see the local Lions Club continue?

Are there any locals who would be interested to step up and join the Club?

The Hanmer Springs Lions Club, this August, is now in its 40th year of existence in Hanmer Springs.

The Club has provided enormous financial support to the community residents and organisations, locally and around New Zealand, the list is long, but a few are listed below:

- Awatere School Computers
- St Johns
- Outward Bound sponsorship
- New Zealand Variety Club Charity
- Donation to various charitable organisations
- Christchurch Schools Music Festival
- Health Kiosk
- Hanmer Meals on Wheels
- Amuri Area School
- Waiau earthquake response
- Hanmer School for leadership camps at Boyle River and Windy Point
- Medical Centre blood pressure machine
- Scholarship for Tertiary students
- Benches in the forest
- Camp Quality Christchurch
- Mobility Scooter
- Hanmer School
- Hanmer Springs Bowling Club
- Hanmer senior citizens Annual Christmas lunch
- Planted cherry trees along the main avenues in Hanmer

The elderly and all sectors of the community have benefitted from hundreds of fundraising efforts by a group of volunteers.

By the same token, in the 40 years the Club has been in existence in Hanmer, many of the businesses in Hanmer have been 100% supportive of the Hanmer Lions and have assisted the Club in a lot of ways.

Hanmer Lions continue to contribute and volunteer their time helping others and equally having a lot of fun.

Now a major challenge is causing concern. With membership numbers declining, the Club is at crisis point. There are not enough members to continue the work that we do.

If you are interested in becoming a member, or even just want to become a “Friend of the Lions” by volunteering to help at any of the events or fundraising projects that we do, please let us know.

We are putting this information out to the community to see if there is interest in the Lions Club continuing in Hanmer Springs.

Your views and ideas would be greatly appreciated.

A Few Sayings That Are Worth Recording

By Pita Alexander

1. Tell a man there are 300 billion stars in the universe and he will believe you - tell him a bench has wet paint on it and he will have to touch it to be sure.
2. A compromise is an agreement whereby both parties get what neither of them wanted.
3. It doesn't matter whether you win or lose — what matters is whether I win or lose.
4. Never wrestle with a pig - you both get dirty and the pig loves it.
5. Everyone has a photographic memory - but some people just don't have any film.
6. You don't leave room for pudding — you make room.
7. Light travels faster than sound — this is why some people appear bright until you hear them speak.
8. Exercise is a dirty word — every time I hear it I wash my mouth out with chocolate.
9. In theory there is no difference between theory and practice — but in practice there is.
10. The things that come to those who wait are usually the things left by those who got there first.
11. Tell me what you need and I will tell you how to get along without it.
12. Always smile — it makes people wonder what you're up to.
13. Anything worth fight for is worth fighting dirty for.
14. The sooner you fall behind the more time you will have to catch up.
15. The most difficult part of attaining perfection is something to do for an encore.
16. Don't be irreplaceable — if you can't be replaced you can't be promoted.
17. Anything worth doing - — is worth getting someone else to do.
18. Sincerity is the key — once you can fake that you've got it made.
19. A clear conscience is usually a sign of a bad memory.
20. Work fascinates me, I can sit and look at it for hours.
21. I am living so far beyond my income — that we may almost be said to be living apart.
22. If you can keep your head until all around you are losing theirs — you probably don't understand the problem.

23. A father carries pictures where his money used to be.
24. Money talks — but all mine ever says is goodbye.
25. Borrow money from pessimists — they don't expect it back.
26. Christmas is the season when you buy this year's gifts with next year's income.
27. I started out with nothing and I still have most of it left.
28. By the time you can make ends meet they have moved the ends.
29. A fine is a tax for doing wrong — a tax is a fine for doing well.
30. Home cooking — where many a man thinks his wife is.
31. Women always worry about the things men forget — men always worry about the things women remember.
32. If evolution has progressed so far — how come women only have two hands and men can only concentrate on one issue at a time.
33. Families are like fudge — mostly sweet with a few nuts.
34. Boys will be boys — and so will a lot of middle aged men.
35. The trouble with being a parent is that by the time you are experienced, you are unemployed.
36. There are ten types of people in the world — those who understand binary and those who don't.
37. A recent survey showed that 3 out of 4 people make up 75% of the world's population.
38. Research shows that 14 out of 10 people like chocolate.
39. The UK Tory party only panics in a crisis.
40. I used to eat a lot of natural foods until I learnt that most people die of natural causes.
